

Bill and Cathy McArthur Return from Spain

Thanks for your forbearance over the past sixteen weeks. We've enjoyed sharing our experiences with you and staying in contact with friends has helped us through some of our challenges abroad. We arrived in Philadelphia last night shortly after 7:00 PM and were met by Katie and Tom. We stopped by Alex and Phil's new home for the night and will return to Cape May Beach sometime today. Bill was going to write a summarizing email segment, but Cathy said to just leave it be. So be it.
